UTAH'S STATEWIDE NANOTECHNOLOGY GRANT COORDINATION WORKSHOP

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13 · SMBB ATRIUM & AUDITORIUM · THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

Returning to the roots of nanoUtah

We will form the bases of successful collaborations in multi-PI cross-disciplinary grant writing. NanoUtah 2015 will bring together members of the business community, government representatives and academic researchers involved and interested in the development and commercialization of micro and nanotechnology.

Agenda:

Early Morning: 8:00 am-9:45 am: Keynote speaker, multi-PI grants, large research centers grants

Interested in leading or participating in a large research center? Contact Ian Harvey.

Late Morning: 10:05 am-11:45 am: Infrastructure & equipment grants

Interested in spearheading aquisition of new core tools/instruments? Contact Ian Harvey.

Working Lunch: 11:45 am-1:15 pm: Lunch including debriefing session. Facilitators discuss outcomes from topic-specific working lunch table

Afternoon: 1:15 pm-5:00 pm: Smaller (2-5) PI grants and SBIR/STTR opportunities, IRG proposals to MRSEC

Targeted a research grant or SBIR/STTR and need some help? Submit an abstract.
